

INDEX

Jan.-June 1990

ADVERTISING

- Most think ad ban on alcohol ok; 1st amendment in trouble? 3/12
- Eggs now carry ads on shell, 4/2
- New ad agency compensation plan would give it control of pr, omit automatic 15% commission, 5/14
- Newspapers are monitoring accuracy of political ads, 6/25

ADVOCACY/ACTIVISTS

- More vigorous than ever, adopting extreme methods to drive causes, 1/8
- Women's clinics turn tables on anti-abortion picketers, 2/19
- Activists discredit info campaign by returning mailings to source, 2/26
- Post Earth-Day realities, 4/23
- California voters won Prop 103 despite insurance industry's huge budget, 5/7
- 2 housewives explain how homemakers so often win against corporations, 5/14
- StarKist Tuna's customer advocacy inspires policy change, 5/14
- More companies tout "dolphin-safe" products, 6/4

ANNUAL REPORTS

- First yield of '89 ARs bland, 4/16

BANKS

- Banks advertise for "relationship managers," 1/15
- More on "relationship manager," 3/12

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

- MADD's Project Red Ribbon successful at reinforcing behavior, 1/15
- Anti-domestic-violence group attempts to influence secondary publics, 2/12
- Accurate targeting needs behavioral slant, 4/2
- Research on effects of tv adds important understanding of mass comm limits, 5/21

- Teen pregnancy prevention program is model for creating awareness, attitudinal change, 5/28
- Info has little effect on behavior, 6/11
- Process of decisionmaking as important as the decision, 6/18
- Defining human nature in a way that's applicable to the pr practice, 6/25

BOOKS/PUBLICATIONS

- Health Risks & The Press, 1/29
- Improving Risk Communication, 1/29
- Catalog shopping takes hold, 2/5
- 1989 saw record number of new mags, many reflecting societal trends, 5/7
- Television & The Quality Of Life: How Viewing Shapes Everyday Experience, 5/21

BUSINESS

- School-business partnerships may suffer if substantive programs don't replace current offerings, 3/5
- Valdez Principles get mixed reviews, 3/5
- Ford sends employees to master's programs for prof'l development, 3/12
- Top 3 business speaking platforms in US, 3/12
- Arthur Page Society 1920's warning still haunts today, 3/19
- Top execs' list of hot priorities is out of sync with that of policymakers, 4/9
- Proposal to crack down on corporate crime tabled until next year, 4/23
- Xerox seeks quality based on relationship building, 5/21
- Gerber decides plant tours not worth the risks, 5/21
- How quality is ensured at American Express, 6/4
- Manville shares what it learned from its asbestos nightmare, 6/25

CANADA

- Environmental & social problems provide opportunities for pr, 3/5

- Will political problems give new steam to unilingual movement in the US? 6/11
- Realities for pr from CPRS conf, 6/18
- CPRS elects officers, 6/18
- Process of decisionmaking as important as the decision, 6/18
- CPRS gives its highest awards, 6/25

COMMUNICATIONS

- Managing risk perception; how will public respond? 1/29
- Every practitioner affected by public's perception of risk, 1/29
- Tiers of risk comm characteristics, 1/29
- Health Risks & The Press, 1/29
- Improving Risk Communication, 1/29
- Communicators employ apocalyptic themes to break thru clutter, 2/26
- 7 key principles for risk comm, 2/26
- New legislation calls for ban on junk fax, junk calls, 3/19
- NPR celebrates 20th anniversary, 3/19
- Accurate targeting needs behavioral slant, 4/2
- For-pay phone services are thriving, 4/2
- Post Earth-Day realities, 4/23
- More on phone manners, 5/7
- 2 housewives explain how homemakers so often win against corporations, 5/14
- Will Canada's political problems give new steam to US unilingual movement? 6/11
- Strategy, semantics got Barbara Bush thru Wellesley graduation speech, 6/11
- Info has little effect on behavior, 6/11
- Healthcare is every orgn's issue: practitioners have to educate, 6/18
- Health hype a factor in risk mgmt; does it frighten unnecessarily?, 6/25
- Bumper stickers put things in perspective, 6/25

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

In new decade, practitioners must change strategies, techniques & attitudes, 1/1
 Calif fire dep't uses audiotext to ensure senior safety, 1/8
 Study finds youth lack civic responsibility, are ignorant of public affairs, 3/26
 Food store chain unites with community to help kids with cancer, 4/30
 Gerber decides plant tours not worth the risks, 5/21

CONSUMER AFFAIRS/CUSTOMER RELATIONS

Customer satisfaction strategies that employ personalized techniques, 1/1
 Catalog shopping takes hold, 2/5
 Changing profile of 90s consumer indicates end of mass markets, 2/19
 Beer company tackles teen drinking issue by targeting parents, 4/9
 Xerox seeks quality based on relationship building, 5/21
 Gerber decides plant tours not worth the risks, 5/21
 How some ins cos distance themselves from industry's poor reputation, 5/28
 Corps owe more to customers & employees than stockholders, 6/11

CRISIS MANAGEMENT/COMMUNICATION

Stats on crisis plans, 1/22
 Managing risk perception; how will public respond?, 1/29
 7 key principles for risk comn, 2/26
 Miners compensation issue shows pr thinking is essential, 3/19
 Arthur Page Society 1920's warning still haunts today, 3/19
 Union Carbide reflects on Bhopal, 4/23
 Investor rels prgm gains credibility for small company, 6/11

DEMOGRAPHICS

1990 Census will include homeless, 1/8

Burgeoning senior market requires special segmentation, not stereotyping, 2/5
 Gray Panthers use senior power to push for healthcare changes, 2/5
 Homeless sector is coming to the forefront as a valid public, 2/12
 Changing profile of 90s consumer indicates end of mass markets, 2/19
 Study finds youth lack civic responsibility, are ignorant of public affairs, 3/26
 1/3 of Americans are "wealth-poor," 4/9

DIRECT MAIL

Parade of '89 holiday cards shows humor, hi-tech, sensitivity, 1/8
 Activists discredit info campaign by returning mailings to source, 2/26
 Conference scopes database mktg, 6/4

EDUCATION

School-business partnerships may suffer if substantive programs don't replace current offerings, 3/5
 Ford sends employees to master's programs for prof'l development, 3/12

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS/
 COMMUNICATION

In new decade, practitioners must change strategies, techniques & attitudes, 1/1
 Benefits, positive reinforcement keep employees, 1/15
 Work In America's awards dinner emphasizes collaborative relationships, 2/5
 Ford sends employees to master's programs for prof'l development, 3/12
 Study finds salary is, after all, a top motivating factor, 3/12
 Valdez Principles may be rule for Calif public employee pension funds, 3/12
 Corporation beset by financial woes rallies employees in volunteer efforts, 3/19
 Public opinion increasingly favors mgmt while labor gets mixed reviews, 3/26

Beer company counters unions with heavy employee relations efforts, 3/26
 Studies show daycare benefits will be very important to 90s' worker, 4/2
 Importance of employee involvement recognized, mgrs get short shrift, 4/16
 If hr vs. pr battle comes to pass, which will get employee comms? 4/30
 Xerox seeks quality based on relationship building, 5/21
 How quality is ensured at American Express, 6/4
 Corps owe more to customers & employees than stockholders, 6/11
 Healthcare is every orgn's issue: practitioners have to educate, 6/18

ENVIRONMENT

Organizations' Earth Day plans, 1/15
 Canada's environmental & social problems provide opportunities for pr, 3/5
 Valdez Principles receive mixed reviews, 3/5
 Valdez Principles may be rule for Calif public employee pension funds, 3/12
 Policymakers agree environment is #1 issue, 4/2
 Post Earth-Day realities, 4/23
 2 housewives explain how homemakers so often win against corporations, 5/14
 Customer advocacy inspires StarKist's policy change, 5/14

ETHICS

Apocalyptic themes break thru clutter, satisfy public's thirst for moral guidance, 2/26
 Newspapers are monitoring accuracy of political ads, 6/25

FINANCIAL/INVESTOR RELATIONS

Accounting profession willingly votes in strict new standards, 2/19
 Investor rels prgm gains credibility for small company, 6/11

Business execs believe corps owe more responsibility to customers & employees than stockholders, 6/11

FORECASTING

In new decade, practitioners must change strategies, techniques & attitudes, 1/1
 90s execs will look to practitioners as closest advisors & supporters, 3/26
 Studies show daycare benefits will be very important to 90s' worker, 4/2
 Despite grim labor stats, the outlook is good for pr, 4/9
 PR Exchange International outlines megatrends for the 1990s, 6/4

FUNDRAISING

Corporation beset by financial woes rallies employees in volunteer efforts, 3/19
 Food store chain unites with community to help kids with cancer, 4/30

GENDER ISSUES

PRSA's Task Force on Women calls for profession to address inequities, 2/19

GOVERNMENT

1990 Census will include homeless, 1/8
 Proposed Kentucky tax may affect pr, 2/5
 Valdez Principles may be rule for Calif public employee pension funds, 3/12
 New legislation calls for ban on junk fax, junk calls, 3/19
 If defense policy affects your organization, be aware of this research, 4/23
 California voters won Prop 103 despite insurance industry's huge budget, 5/7
 NY won't tax pr after all, 5/21
 Will Canada's political problems give new steam to unilingual movement in the US? 6/11
 Maine & Mass mull services tax, 6/18
 Process of decisionmaking as important as the decision, 6/18

HEALTHCARE

Gray Panthers use senior power to push for healthcare changes, 2/5
 Healthcare is every orgn's issue: practitioners have to educate, 6/18
 Health hype a factor in risk mgmt; does it frighten unnecessarily?, 6/25

ISSUE MANAGEMENT/ ANTICIPATION

Women's clinics turn tables on anti-abortion picketers, 2/19
 Miners compensation issue shows pr thinking is essential, 3/19
 Arthur Page Society 1920's warning still haunts today, 3/19
 2 studies outline those issues important to policymakers, 4/2
 Some ins cos are distancing themselves from industry's poor reputation, 5/28
 Manville shares what it learned from its asbestos nightmare, 6/25

JOURNALISM

Medellin drug cartel has "professional pr counsel," speculates NYTimes, 2/19
 Editorial board goes public, 3/12
 New copyright law has heavy implications for pr, 4/23
 Study shows journalists salaries start low & stay low thruout their careers, 4/30

LANGUAGE

Anti-gun lobby changes its name to gain broader appeal, 1/8
 Campaign rhetoric often backfires, as illustrated by pro-gun lobby, 2/5
 Will Canada's political problems give new steam to unilingual movement in the US? 6/11
 Strategy, semantics got Barbara Bush thru Wellesley graduation speech, 6/11

MANAGEMENT

Work In America's awards dinner emphasizes collaborative relationships, 2/5
 Public opinion increasingly favors mgmt while labor gets mixed reviews, 3/26

Beer company counters unions with heavy employee relations efforts, 3/26
 Importance of employee involvement recognized, mgrs get short shrift, 4/16
 Xerox seeks quality based on relationship building, 5/21

MARKETING

Burgeoning senior market requires special segmentation, not stereotyping, 2/5
 Catalog shopping takes hold, 2/5
 Changing profile of consumer of the 90s indicates end of mass markets, 2/19
 Accurate targeting needs behavioral slant, 4/2
 Conference scopes database mktg, 6/4

MEDIA: ELECTRONIC

New legislation call for ban on junk fax, junk calls, 3/19
 National Public Radio celebrates 20th anniversary, 3/19
 For-pay phone services are thriving, 4/2
 Research on effects of tv adds important understanding of mass comn limits, 5/21
 Conference scopes database mktg, 6/4

MEDIA: GENERAL

Paul Newman decries media intrusion, 1/8
 Medellin drug cartel has "professional pr counsel," speculates NYTimes, 2/19
 Apocalyptic themes break thru clutter, satisfy public's thirst for moral guidance, 2/26
 Editorial board goes public, 3/12
 1989 saw record number of new mags, 5/7
 Designated driver campaign shows how mass media can work for you, 6/4
 Health hype a factor in risk mgmt; does it frighten unnecessarily?, 6/25
 Newspapers are monitoring accuracy of political ads, 6/25

NONPROFITS

MADD's Project Red Ribbon successful at reinforcing behavior, 1/15
 Gray Panthers use senior power to push for healthcare changes, 2/5
 Anti-domestic-violence group attempts to influence secondary publics, 2/12
 Women's clinics turn tables on anti-abortion picketers, 2/19
 NPR celebrates 20th anniversary, 3/19
 Teen pregnancy prevention program is model for creating awareness, attitudinal change, 5/28
 Designated driver campaign shows how mass media can work for you, 6/4

ORGANIZATION DEVELOPMENT

In new decade, practitioners must change strategies, techniques & attitudes, 1/1
 Annual Survey II: PR's assignment portfolio is broadening, 1/22
 Changes are reported in chains of command, 1/22
 90s execs will look to practitioners as closest advisors & supporters, 3/26
 Importance of employee involvement recognized, mgrs get short shrift, 4/16
 If hr vs. pr battle comes to pass, which will get employee comms? 4/30
 More on phone manners, 5/7
 Xerox undergoes cultural change, seeks quality based on relationship building, 5/21

PERCEPTION MANAGEMENT

Managing risk perception; how will public respond? 1/29
 Every practitioner affected by public's perception of risk, 1/29
 Tiers of risk comn characteristics, 1/29
 Insurance companies grappling with industry's major public perception problem, 5/7
 Investor rels prgm gains credibility for small company, 6/11

PHILANTHROPY

Food store chain unites with community to help kids with cancer, 4/30

PRODUCTIVITY

Benefits, positive reinforcement keeps employees, 1/15
 Salary is a top motivating factor, 3/12
 How quality is ensured at American Express, 6/4

PSYCHOLOGY

Defining human nature in a way that's applicable to the pr practice, 6/25

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Campaign rhetoric often backfires, as illustrated by pro-gun lobby, 2/5
 2 studies outline those issues important to policymakers, 4/2
 Policymakers agree environment is #1 issue, 4/2
 Top execs' list of hot priorities is out of sync with that of policymakers, 4/9

PUBLIC OPINION

Managing risk perception; how will public respond? 1/29
 Every practitioner affected by public's perception of risk, 1/29
 Public opinion increasingly favors mgmt while labor gets mixed reviews, 3/26
 Insurance cos grappling with industry's major public perception problem, 5/7

PUBLIC RELATIONS & THE LAW

Legal profession suffers negative image, crumbling standards, 2/12

PUBLIC RELATIONS: GENERAL

Banks advertise for "relationship managers," 1/15
 Tiers of risk comn characteristics, 1/29
 Burgeoning senior market requires special segmentation, not stereotyping, 2/5
 Homeless becoming a valid public, 2/12
 Corporation beset by financial woes rallies employees in volunteer efforts, 3/19

Miners compensation issue shows pr thinking is essential, 3/19
 Arthur Page Society 1920's warning still haunts today, 3/19

Accurate targeting needs behavioral slant, 4/2
 Catholic bishops turn to pr firm to help frame abortion issue, 4/9
 Post Earth-Day realities, 4/23
 Copyright law has pr implications, 4/23
 Union Carbide reflects on Bhopal, 4/23
 Food store chain unites with community to help kids with cancer, 4/30

Insurance cos grappling with industry's major public perception problem, 5/7
 California voters won Prop 103 despite insurance industry's huge budget, 5/7

New ad agency compensation plan would give it control of pr, omit automatic 15% commission, 5/14
 Customer advocacy inspires StarKist's decision for policy change, 5/14

Some insurance companies are distancing themselves from industry's poor reputation, 5/28
 PR Exchange International outlines megatrends for the 1990s, 6/4

PUBLIC RELATIONS: PROFESSION

In new decade, practitioners must change strategies, techniques & attitudes, 1/1
 Does high turnover in pr damage professionalism? 1/15
 Industry studies compare pr practitioners' turnover rate, 1/15
 Annual Survey II: PR's assignment portfolio is broadening, 1/22
 PR's role is scrambled as organizations restructure, 1/22
 Changes are reported in chains of command, 1/22
 PR tied to bottom line, but no standard measure for success exits, 1/22
 Trends in the profession seen as primary issues to watch in 90s, 1/22
 Proposed Kentucky tax may affect pr, 2/5

PRSA's Task Force on Women calls for profession to address inequities, 2/19

Medellin drug cartel has "professional pr counsel," speculates NYTimes, 2/19

Canada's environmental & social problems provide opportunities for pr, 3/5

Ford sends employees to master's programs for prof'l development, 3/12

90s execs will look to practitioners as closest advisors & supporters, 3/26

Despite grim labor stats, the outlook is good for pr, 4/9

Bishops' hiring of pr counsel raises serious issues for profession, 4/16

If hr vs. pr battle comes to pass, which will get employee coms? 4/30

NY won't tax pr after all, 5/21

Realities for pr from CPRS conf, 6/18

Maine & Mass null services tax, 6/18

Defining human nature in a way that's applicable to the pr practice, 6/25

RELIGION

Catholic bishops turn to pr firm to help frame abortion issue, 4/9

Catholic bishop holds public forum on abortion issue, 4/9

Bishops' hiring of pr counsel raises serious issues for profession, 4/16

RESEARCH

On effects of tv adds important understanding of mass comm limits, 5/21

Conference scopes database mktg, 6/4

Business execs believe corps owe more responsibility to customers & employees than stockholders, 6/11

"Gap" research techniques, 6/18

SOCIAL ISSUES

1990 Census will include homeless, 1/8

MADD's Project Red Ribbon successful at reinforcing behavior, 1/15

Gray Panthers use senior power to push for healthcare changes, 2/5

Anti-domestic-violence group attempts to influence secondary publics, 2/12

Women's clinics turn tables on anti-abortion picketers, 2/19

Canada's environmental & social problems provide opportunities for pr, 3/5

Americans think ad ban on alcohol ok; 1st amendment in trouble?, 3/12

Study finds youth lack civic responsibility, are ignorant of public affairs, 3/26

2 studies outline those issues important to policymakers, 4/2

Policymakers agree environment is #1 issue, 4/2

Catholic bishops turn to pr firm to help frame abortion issue, 4/9

Catholic bishop holds public forum on abortion issue, 4/9

Top execs' list of hot priorities is out of sync with that of policymakers, 4/9

Beer company tackles teen drinking issue by targeting parents, 4/9

1/3 of Americans are "wealth-poor," 4/9

Bishops' hiring of pr counsel raises serious issues for profession, 4/16

Teen pregnancy prevention program is model for creating awareness, attitudinal change, 5/28

Designated driver campaign shows how mass media can work for you, 6/4

More companies tout "dolphin-safe" products, 6/4

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Calif fire dep't uses audiotext to ensure senior safety, 1/8

Organizations' Earth Day plans, 1/15

School-business partnerships may suffer if substantive programs don't replace current offerings, 3/5

Valdez Principles, 3/5

Miners compensation issue shows pr thinking is essential, 3/19

Arthur Page Society 1920's warning still haunts today, 3/19

Study finds youth lack civic responsibility, are ignorant of public affairs, 3/26

Beer company tackles teen drinking issue by targeting parents, 4/9

Food store chain unites with community to help kids with cancer, 4/30

More companies tout "dolphin-safe" products, 6/4

Manville shares what it learned from its asbestos nightmare, 6/25

SURVEY OF THE PROFESSION: PRR'S ANNUAL

Does high turnover in pr damage professionalism?, 1/15

Industry studies compare pr practitioners' turnover rate, 1/15

PR's assignment portfolio broadens, 1/22

Stats on crisis plans, 1/22

PR's role is scrambled as organizations restructure, 1/22

Changes in chains of command, 1/22

PR tied to bottom line, but no standard measure for success exits, 1/22

Trends in the profession seen as primary issues to watch in 90s, 1/22

TECHNOLOGY

Parade of '89 holiday cards shows humor, hi-tech, sensitivity, 1/8

Calif fire dep't uses audiotext to ensure senior safety, 1/8

New legislation calls for ban on junk fax, junk calls, 3/19

For-pay phone services are thriving, 4/2

Conference scopes database mktg, 6/4

Realities for pr from CPRS conf, 6/18

TRADE/PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Accounting profession willingly votes in strict new standards, 2/19

Insurance cos grappling with industry's major public perception problem, 5/7

Realities for pr from CPRS conf, 6/18

CPRS elects officers, 6/18

IABC elects 1990-91 officers, 6/18

CPRS gives its highest awards, 6/25

IABC gives top awards, 6/25

TRENDS

PR's assignment portfolio broadens,
1/22

Trends in the profession seen as primary issues to watch in 90s,
1/22

Apocalyptic themes break thru clutter, satisfy public's thirst for moral guidance, 2/26

Study finds youth lack civic responsibility, are ignorant of public affairs, 3/26

PR Exchange International outlines megatrends for the 1990s, 6/4

pr reporter's Reader Service Department

...is available to answer your questions about articles, send reprints & binders, and provide information & references. Just call Laurie at 603/778-0514 to place your order. Note: please send pre-payment on orders of $10 or more.

Reprints

Need an extra copy for your boss or client? Reprints of all articles in this index are available for a small charge from pr reporter.

Binders

...are available for only $8.50. That's just cost plus postage. Keep a year's issues including our 3 supplements together as a handy reference. To order, call pr reporter.

Reprint Rates

1 issue	$5.00
2-10 issues	$4.00 each
11-25 issues	$3.00 each