

PRSA reaffirms its choice: Phoenix, 1991, 12/24

PUBLICITY/PROMOTIONS

Stimulating meeting participants is cleverly done by a name tent, 8/6
Hollywood gains political clout as celebs band together in activism, 10/8
Columbus Quincentenary promises pr challenges, 12/17
McDonald's environment posters perceived as "greenwashing", 12/17

RESEARCH

Behavioral pr gives new focus to research, 8/13
Research findings must be interpreted with caution, 8/27
Recent election polling shows opinion method is unreliable, 10/15

SOCIAL ISSUES

Educating tomorrow's workforce is paramount pr project, 7/2
World Future Society tracks peoples fears & hopes, 7/16
Hispanic population grows, as do services to help it, 7/30
Campaign to fight AIDS is simple but powerful grassroots effort, 8/6
When is it in everyone's best interest to tell all, and when is it not?, 8/20
Landmark law for people with disabilities promotes rights, respect, 9/17
Non-pro turns drop-out rate around by using pr tenets, 9/24
Will hard-line trend in politics spread to other sectors?, 10/8
Martin Luther King Day debate teaches about cultural diversity, litmus-test labeling, 11/26
3 campaigns show how partnerships & grassroots involvement yield success, 12/10
TV gets bum rap for street violence, says prof, 12/10

2 more examples of how litmus tests create intractable mindsets, 12/10
Mattel uses social marketing technique to sell Barbie dolls, 12/17
MADD yields one of the most successful behavioral campaigns ever, 12/24
World Future Society forecasts for 2000 and beyond, 12/24

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Educating tomorrow's workforce is paramount pr project, 7/2
Business Ethics Report outlines environmental obligations, 7/30
800 numbers make activism easy, 8/20
Full text of California's Green Initiative, 8/27

SURVEY OF THE PROFESSION: PRR'S ANNUAL

Survey Part I highlights salaries & demographics, 10/1
Annual Survey II: practitioner concerns shift from state of the profession to state of the economy, 10/22

TECHNOLOGY

Difficulty of explaining technology exemplified by Hubble telescope, 7/23

TRENDS

World Future Society tracks peoples fears & hopes, 7/16
What does the demise of well known magazines signify?, 8/6
Overnight couriers promote "same-day service.", 8/27
Real estate developers answer needs of employee public, 9/3
Will hard-line trend in politics spread to other sectors?, 10/8
Counselling lawyers moves toward full range of pr, 10/29
Dip in verbal SAT scores reinforces frightening trend, 10/29

Internationalized personal pages show global village is already here, 11/5
Practitioner heralds era of partnership problem-solving, 12/3
World Future Society forecasts for 2000 and beyond, 12/24

WHO'S WHO IN PUBLIC RELATIONS

Ashton Collins, elected chr of Public Service of New Mexico, 7/2
NSPRA elects officers, 7/16
Morris Rosenbloom receives David Apter Memorial Award, 7/16
Vern Schranz, first pr officer, Ball Corp, dies, 7/16
Bonnie Ellison wins NSPRA's President's Award, 7/30
Robert Van Riper, FASB, retires, 8/13
PRSA nominates 1991 officers, 8/20
PRSA nominates '90-'91 directors-at-large, 8/27
Larry O'Brien, helped reshape politics, dies, 10/8
Dave McCammond, past PRSA pres & Gold Anvil winner, dies, 10/15
Ed Lipscomb, past PRSA president and a founder, dies, 10/15
Life Communicators Ass'n elects '90-'91 officers, 10/15
PRSA honors 1990 award recipients, 10/29
IPRRE presents '90 awards, 11/5
PRSA elects College Of Fellows of officers, 11/12
Edward Bernays turns 99, 11/19
Lemuel Boulware, General Electric vp, dies, 11/19
Ron Byler appointed exec dir of Religious PR Council, 11/19
Soviet pr man Gennady Gerasimov now ambassador, 11/26
Patricia Harrison appointed to President's Export Council, 12/17
William Novelli leaves Porter Novelli to be CEO of CARE, 12/17
Jim Tolley named pres of IPRRE, 12/17
NAGC honors Ginnady Gerasimov, 12/17

INDEX

July-December 1990

ADVERTISING

Domino's lets customers know safety comes before speedy delivery, 7/2
Advertisers predict their work will move toward behavioral research, 8/13
Doonesbury recounts classic Edward Bernays campaign, 9/17
VNRs pass as news items all the time, 10/8
Feeling the pinch, advertisers attempt to prove their value, 10/15
Nonprofits leave PSAs for alternative advertising methods, 10/15

ADVOCACY/ACTIVISTS

Campaign to fight AIDS is simple but powerful grassroots effort, 8/6
800 numbers make activism easy, 8/20
Hollywood gains political clout as celebs band together in activism, 10/8
Columbus Quincentenary promises pr challenges, 12/17
MADD yields one of the most successful behavioral campaigns ever, 12/24

ANNUAL REPORTS

Many 1990 annual reports will be made from recycled paper, 8/27

BANKS

Practitioners will have to help clients thru investment banking hang-over, 7/2
Practitioner outlines banking industry's pr problems, 10/15

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Communications model vs. behavioral pr model, 7/30
Behavioral pr gives new focus to research, 8/13
Advertising leaders predict their work will move toward behavioral research, 8/13
B.F. Skinner wants to be remembered as a "social designer", 8/20
TV gets bum rap for street violence, says prof, 12/10

BOOKS/PUBLICATIONS

Millionaires are now accessible thru new directory, 7/16
Business Ethics Report outlines business' obligation to the environment, 7/30
What does the demise of well known magazines signify?, 8/6

Another newsletter for communicators, 8/13
New book simplifies laws pertaining to pr, 8/27
Alvie Smith's book on employee communication now available, 9/3
Life magazine finds pr's emergence a 20th century landmark, 10/8
Healthcare PR book models position of '90s practice in all sectors, 10/29

BUDGETS

Budgeteer Issue scopes impact of weakened economy, 9/10
More about clipping costs, 9/17

BUSINESS

Practitioners will have to help clients thru investment banking hang-over, 7/2
Research shows CEOs value pr more than practitioners themselves, 7/2
Business Ethics Report outlines business' obligation to the environment, 7/30
Will environmental issues fade as the economy falters?, 7/30
Worldcom surveys industries most affected by EC '92, 11/5

CANADA

Canada's services tax won't harm pr, 8/6
Upset over Ontario election brings challenges, signals socialistic wave, 9/17
Canadian explains his people's reluctance to express party preference, 11/19

COMMUNICATIONS

Difficulty of explaining technology exemplified by Hubble telescope, 7/23
Communications model vs. behavioral pr model, 7/30
Veteran speechwriter offers speedy speechwriting service, 7/30
Another newsletter for communicators, 8/13
Overnight couriers promote "same-day service.", 8/27
Alvie Smith's book on employee communication available, 9/3
Study scopes likes & dislikes of 800 numbers, 9/24
Gender differences in communication originate at physical level, 9/24
Posters continue to be strongest communication medium, 10/8

WICI's annual conference covers broadest range of topics yet, 10/29
Highway department establishes communication certification program, 11/26
Chemical plants use specialized phone lines to answer public's need for info, 12/3
More examples of targeted & personalized communication appear, 12/3

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Campaign to fight AIDS is simple but powerful grassroots effort, 8/6

CONSUMER AFFAIRS

Environmental consciousness strong enough to foster boycotts, 8/20
Is a boycott the easiest way for a consumer to get involved?, 8/20
Intangible yardsticks create "4th hurdle" in risk management, 9/17
Conference roundtable yields ideas for marketing a "me-too" product/service, 11/26
Mattel uses social marketing technique to sell Barbie dolls, 12/17

CRISIS MANAGEMENT

Domino's lets customers know safety comes before speedy delivery, 7/2
Practitioner outlines banking industry's pr problems, 10/15
Chemical plants use specialized phone lines to answer public's need for info, 12/3

DEMOGRAPHICS

Teens are becoming a strong financial market, 7/16
Millionaires are now accessible thru new directory, 7/16
Hispanic population grows as do services to help it, 7/30
Study shows teens are volunteering, sharing their resources, 12/10

ECONOMICS

Annual Survey II: practitioner concerns shift from state of the profession to state of the economy, 10/22
Research finds women's leadership more practical in a globalizing economy, 12/3

EDUCATION

Educating tomorrow's workforce is paramount pr project, 7/2

pr reporter's Reader Service Department can answer questions about articles, send reprints & binders, provide info & references. Call Laurie Eldridge at 603/778-0514. Note: please send pre-payment on orders of $10 or more.

Reprints

Need an extra copy for your boss or client? Reprints are available for a small charge.

Binders

are available for only $8.50. Keep a year's issues & supplements together for handy reference!

Reprint Rates

1 issue $5 each
2-10 $4 each
11-25 $3 each

Workplace-based program allows employees to help their kids learn, 8/13
 Educator internships grow in popularity, 8/13
 PR's role in infiltrating school classrooms is again in question, 8/27
 Non-pro turns drop-out rate around by using pr tenets, 9/24
 Dip in verbal SAT scores reinforces frightening trend, 10/29

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

Workplace-based program allows employees to help their kids learn, 8/13
 Personal & family problems is biggest productivity destroyer, 8/13
 Research shows troublesome trend in employee loyalty, 9/3
 Wellness program strives to curtail #1 cause of employee death, 9/3
 Alvie Smith's book on employee communication available, 9/3
 HR-PR comparison study lists median salaries of hr pros, 10/29

ENVIRONMENT

Business Ethics Report outlines business' obligation to the environment, 7/30
 Will environmental issues fade as the economy falters?, 7/30
 Practitioner says Calif's Green Initiative ignores science for perception, 8/6
 Environmental consciousness strong enough to foster boycotts, 8/20
 Many 1990 annual reports will be made from recycled paper, 8/27
 Full text of California's Green Initiative, 8/27
 Jay Hair explains why Valdez Principles are not working, 11/12
 Eco-crisis spawns new organizational title, 11/19
 McDonald's environment posters perceived as "greenwashing", 12/17
 As public becomes savvy about recycling, manufacturers must watch enviro claims, 12/24

ETHICS

Jay Hair explains why Valdez Principles are not working, 11/12

FILM/VIDEO

Video from PR Institute shows business pr at its best, 7/23
 Hollywood gains political clout as celebs band together in activism, 10/8
 VNRs pass as news items all the time, 10/8

FINANCIAL RELATIONS

Practitioners must help clients thru investment banking hangover, 7/2

From PRSA conference: a perspective on financial rels, 11/19

FORECASTING

World Future Society tracks peoples fears & hopes, 7/16
 Arthur Page Society survey turns up bleak predictions for pr, 10/8
 Columbus Quincentenary promises pr challenges, 12/17
 World Future Society forecasts for 2000 and beyond, 12/24

FUNDRAISING

Study shows volunteers are vulnerable to lawsuits, 9/17
 Author explains why fundraising should come under pr's umbrella, 11/19
 Study shows teens are volunteering, sharing their resources, 12/10

GENDER ISSUES

Gender differences in communication originate at physical level, 9/24
 Research finds women's leadership more practical in a globalizing economy, 12/3

GOVERNMENT

PR lucks out again as Massachusetts votes down tax, 7/16
 Canada's services tax won't harm pr, 8/6
 Calif's Green Initiative ignores science for perception, 8/6
 Landmark law for people with disabilities promotes rights, respect, 9/17
 Public's anger at government provides lesson in perception v. reality, 11/5
 Highway department establishes communication certification program, 11/26
 Food Labeling Bill shows mandated disclosure taking another step, 12/17

HEALTHCARE

Healthcare PR book models position of 90s practice in all sectors, 10/29

HUMOR

Doonesbury recounts classic Edward Bernays campaign, 9/17

INTERNATIONAL PR

In the onset of EC '92, pr must position itself & clients, 11/5
 Worldcom surveys industries most affected by EC '92, 11/5
 Internationalized personal pages show global village is already here, 11/5

PRSA conference emphasizes relationship building, global communication, 11/12

ISSUES MANAGEMENT

Intangible yardsticks create "4th hurdle" in risk management, 9/17
 Martin Luther King Day debate teaches about cultural diversity, litmus-test labeling, 11/26
 Chemical plants use specialized phone lines to answer public's need for info, 12/3
 3 campaigns show how partnerships & grassroots involvement yield success, 12/10
 Farm interests enunciate model realistic strategy in outreach effort, 12/17
 Hyatt Regency employees wear workshirts, hardhats during construction, 12/17

JOURNALISM

VNRs pass as news items all the time, 10/8
 Dan Edelman says era of journalists torturing practitioners is over, 11/19
 What was media's role in creating a litmus test around MLK day?, 12/3

LANGUAGE

Hispanic population grows, and so do services to help it, 7/30
 What else does OD stand for?, 8/6

LAW

New book simplifies laws pertaining to pr, 8/27
 Study shows volunteers are vulnerable to lawsuits, 9/17
 Counseling lawyers moves toward full range of pr, 10/29

MANAGEMENT

"Street smarts" deemed a measure of leadership by researchers, 7/23
 Real estate developers answer needs of employee public, 9/3
 Research finds women's leadership more practical in a globalizing economy, 12/3

MARKETING

Teens are becoming a strong financial market, 7/16
 Study scopes likes & dislikes of 800 numbers, 9/24
 Conference roundtable yields ideas for marketing a "me-too" product/service, 11/26
 Emphasize your differences when your industry is beleaguered, 12/3
 Mattel uses social marketing technique to sell Barbie dolls, 12/17

MEDIA: ELECTRONIC

PR Institute issues new documentary video about the profession, 7/2
 Study scopes likes & dislikes of 800 numbers, 9/24
 VNRs pass as news items all the time, 10/8
 TV becomes interactive, 11/19

MEDIA: GENERAL

Nonprofits leave PSAs for alternative advertising, 10/15
 More examples of targeted & personalized communication appear, 12/3
 What was media's role in creating a litmus test around MLK day?, 12/3
 TV gets bum rap for street violence, says prof, 12/10

MEDIA: PRINT

Veteran speechwriter offers speedy speechwriting service, 7/30
 Posters continue to be strongest communication medium, 10/8
 More examples of targeted & personalized communication appear, 12/3

NONPROFITS

Study shows volunteers are vulnerable to lawsuits, 9/17
 Nonprofits leave PSAs for alternative advertising methods, 10/15
 Author explains why fundraising should come under pr's umbrella, 11/19

ORGANIZATION DEVELOPMENT

Insurance company makes the most of "Quiet", 7/23
 What else does OD stand for?, 8/6
 Gaming & simulation is pr tool of the future, 8/20
 Real estate developers answer needs of employee public, 9/3

PERCEPTION MANAGEMENT

Practitioner says Calif's Green Initiative ignores science for perception, 8/6
 Public's anger at government provides lesson in perception v. reality, 11/5

PHILANTHROPY

Study shows volunteers are vulnerable to lawsuits, 9/17
 Author explains why fundraising should come under pr's umbrella, 11/19
 Study shows teens are volunteering, sharing resources, 12/10

PSYCHOLOGY

B.F. Skinner wants to be remembered as a "social designer", 8/20

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Full text of California's Green Initiative, 8/27
 Land mark law for people with disabilities promotes rights, respect, 9/17
 Upset over Ontario election brings challenges, signals socialistic wave, 9/17
 Will hard-line trend in politics spread to other sectors?, 10/8
 Hollywood gains political clout as celebs band together in activism, 10/8
 Recent election polling shows opinion method is unreliable, 10/15
 Public's anger at government provides lesson in perception v. reality, 11/5
 Canadian explains his people's reluctance to express party preference, 11/19
 What was media's role in creating a litmus test around MLK day?, 12/3

PUBLIC OPINION

Recent election polling shows opinion method is unreliable, 10/15
 Public's anger at government provides lesson in perception v. reality, 11/5
 2 more examples of how litmus tests create intractable mindsets, 12/10

PUBLIC RELATIONS: GENERAL

Educating tomorrow's workforce is paramount pr project, 7/2
 Research shows CEOs value pr's contributions more than practitioners themselves, 7/2
 Video from PR Institute shows business pr at its best, 7/23
 Communications model vs. behavioral pr model, 7/30
 Behavioral pr gives new focus to research, 8/13
 Gaming & simulation is pr tool of the future, 8/20
 PR's role in infiltrating school classrooms is again in question, 8/27
 New book simplifies laws pertaining to pr, 8/27
 Non-pro turns drop-out rate around by using pr tenets, grassroots involvement, 9/24
 To keep a seat beside the CEO, pr must embrace accountability, 9/24
 Arthur Page Society survey turns up bleak predictions for pr, 10/8
 Life magazine finds pr's emergence a 20th century landmark, 10/8
 Practitioner outlines banking industry's pr problems, 10/15

Healthcare PR book models position of 90s practice in all sectors, 10/29

HR-PR comparison study lists median salaries of hr pros, 10/29
 Counseling lawyers moves toward full range of pr, 10/29

Harold Burson says pr shapes opinion via communication tools, 11/5
 Author explains why fundraising should come under pr's umbrella, 11/19

Dan Edelman says era of journalists torturing practitioners is over, 11/19

Highway department establishes communication certification program, 11/26

Chemical plants use specialized phone lines to answer public's need for info, 12/3

Practitioner heralds era of partnership problem-solving, 12/3

Emphasize your differences when your industry is beleaguered, 12/3

3 campaigns show how partnerships & grassroots involvement yield success, 12/10

Columbus Quincentenary promises pr challenges, 12/17

While funding for arts is cut, opportunity exists for pr, 12/24

PUBLIC RELATIONS: PROFESSION

Research shows CEOs value pr more than practitioners themselves, 7/2
 PR Institute issues new documentary video about the profession, 7/2

PR lucks out again as Massachusetts votes down tax, 7/16

Upon his retirement, Johnson & Johnson's Larry Foster offers insights, 8/6

Canada's services tax won't harm pr, 8/6

Educator internships grow in popularity, 8/13

In the onset of EC '92, pr must position itself, its org's & clients, 11/5

Interesting quotes & concepts overheard at conference, 11/12

Practitioners & educators urged to submit grant proposals, 12/10

PUBLIC RELATIONS SOCIETY OF AMERICA

PR Institute issues new documentary video about the profession, 7/2

PRSA conference emphasizes relationship building, global communication, 11/12

Interesting quotes & concepts overheard at conference, 11/12

From PRSA conference: a perspective on financial rels, 11/19