

INDEX

Jan.-June 1991

ADVERTISING

- Does Volvo reach too far with "Sonogram" campaign? 3/4
- Lean times for business means fewer ads, more PSAs, 4/8
- Embattled utility uses apologetic appeals to win back consumer confidence, 5/6

ADVOCACY/ACTIVISTS

- Despite awareness campaign re cholesterol, behaviors haven't changed, 4/15
- Internal culture dictates an organization's response to external pressures, 4/22
- Animal rights activism fluid in definition & alliances, 4/29
- "Peacework" periodical allows your organization to keep up with activists, 5/27
- Civil disobedience still around, but now gets no attention, 6/17
- Rule for effective coalitions, 6/24

ANNUAL REPORTS

- Reebok's AR features photo of a nude male, 4/8

BANKS

- As banking flounders, individual institutions strive to maintain public trust, 1/14
- 2 organizations illustrate honest downsizing, 4/15
- Bank uses fax to communicate daily to employees during Chapter 11, 6/24

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

- Behavioral risk factor surveillance lists health hazards by state, 2/11

- Trend towards behavioral pr allows systemization for the pr process, 2/18
- 6 types of campaigns, based on resistance to desired behavior, 2/18
- Despite awareness campaign re cholesterol, behaviors haven't changed, 4/15
- Study of enviro attitudes & behavior yields useful typology, 5/6

BOOKS/PUBLICATIONS

- Farm Journal has been personalizing its contents since 1952, 2/25
- Media woes reflected in decline in new magazine titles, 4/1
- In-house publications in trouble because contents are not pertinent, 4/15
- Publications diminishing, appearing less frequently, 4/22
- Easygoing consumers allow firms to forsake competitiveness, says report, 5/20
- The Day America Told The Truth, 6/24

BUSINESS

- War & recession canceling events, conferences, 2/18
- Some organizations buck trend by pulling big attendance at conferences, 3/4
- Study scopes CEOs' "mobility" patterns, 3/11
- Salary gap not gender specific, nor limited to pr, 3/18
- Old-line industries must now market themselves, use pr, 4/29
- Survey reveals CEO involvement in pr, 6/17

COMMUNICATIONS

- FCC may allow more local regulation of cable tv rates, 1/14
- Report scopes European broadcast industry, 1/21
- To compete, nonprofits try extraordinary appeals, 1/21
- Animal Health establishes OCV to respond to hysterical attacks, 1/21
- New communication technology gives rise to privacy issues, 1/28
- 900 numbers try self regulation, 1/28
- Internal communications is a process, not a program, done well via internal networks, 3/25
- In-house pub'ns in trouble, contents not pertinent, 4/15
- PR teaching dep'ts at reputable schools need training in phone manners, 4/22
- Pub'ns diminishing, appearing less frequently, 4/22
- Customer Service Ass'n presents qtrly journal, 5/13
- OD breakthru: managers, not systems experts, should manage info tech, 5/13
- "Peacework" periodical allows your organization to keep up with activists, 5/27
- IABC's Excellence Study, 6/17
- Practitioner's survey of NYC pr pros verifies IABC's Excellence Study, 6/17
- Fax as a potent pr tool, 6/24
- Bank uses fax to communicate daily to employees during Chapter 11, 6/24
- Can TQM's relationship-based philosophy be salvaged? 6/24

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Coors passes along award-winning program on volunteering thru seminars, 3/25

CONSUMER AFFAIRS/
CUSTOMER RELATIONS

FCC may allow more local regulation of cable tv rates, 1/14
 Animal Health establishes OCV to respond to hysterical attacks, 1/21
 900 numbers try self regulation, 1/28
 Postal service ups mailing prices -- issue is convenience, 2/11
 Package downsizing perceived as deceptive, 2/11
 Study reveals gap between enviro concerns and actual purchase choices, 2/25
 Green consumer psychology, 4/1
 PR's involvement in naming of products and services, 5/6
 Customer Service Ass'n presents qtrly journal, 5/13
 Easygoing consumers allow firms to forsake competitiveness, says report, 5/20
 Ice cream manufacturer uses targeted pr to sell to tonsillectomy patients, 5/27

CRISIS MANAGEMENT/COMMUNICATION

Association tries to educate public on spectrum of potential catastrophes, 3/18
 Exxon notes Alaska benefited economically from Valdez spill, 5/20
 Ketchum finds in Clorox case that prudence is the rule, 5/27

DEMOGRAPHICS

Demographers predict exurbs will be new bastions of political clout, 2/25
 Report finds youth besieged by social & health problems, 3/11

DIRECT MAIL

To compete, nonprofits try extraordinary appeals, 1/21
 Postal service ups mailing prices, 2/11

EDUCATION

Colleges' wartime strategy for Persian Gulf students is to lay low, 3/11
 Northwestern U changes pr curriculum to include advertising, marketing, 3/25

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

Internal communications is a process, not a program, done well via internal networks, 3/25
 Coors passes along award-winning program on volunteering thru seminars, 3/25
 How can employee loyalty be secured when job security is passe? 4/15
 2 organizations illustrate honest downsizing, 4/15
 Bank uses fax to communicate daily to employees during Chapter 11, 6/24
 Can TQM's relationship-based philosophy be salvaged? 6/24

ENVIRONMENT

Enviro activists now realize people come first, 2/4
 Study reveals gap between enviro concerns and actual purchase choices, 2/25
 Self-regulation thru certification in the works for enviro labeling, 3/4
 Backlash against enviro movement raises issue of property rights, 3/25
 Enviro issues present practitioners with major mgmt opportunity, 4/1
 Green consumer psychology, 4/1
 Report says utilities should reverse message strategy re conservation, 4/8

Study of enviro attitudes & behavior yields useful typology, 5/6
 Anger at tuna catchers an industry problem, as companies are finding out, 5/13
 Exxon notes Alaska benefited economically from Valdez spill, 5/20
 Organizations wanting to catch the green wave had better act fast, 5/20
 Chemical industry attempts to self-regulate, respond to public thru "Responsible Care," 6/10

ETHICS

Ongoing scandals makes keeping the faith & building trust the top goal, 5/6
 Hospital self imposes Rotary's test of responsible conduct, 6/10

FINANCIAL/INVESTOR RELATIONS

As banking flounders, individual institutions strive to maintain public trust, 1/14

FORECASTING

United Way scan predicts rebirth of social activism, 1/21
 Studies suggest increased need for pr in years to come, 3/18
 Demographic research says more organizations will need pr departments, 4/29

FUNDRAISING

To compete, NPOs try extraordinary appeals, 1/21

GENDER ISSUES

PRSA research shows gender-based discrimination within the field, 3/4
 Salary gap not gender specific, nor limited to pr, 3/18

GOVERNMENT

- FCC may allow more local regulation of cable tv rates, 1/14
- 900 numbers try self regulation, 1/28
- US Dept of Labor still misses on description of pr profession, 2/18
- Self-regulation thru certification in the works for enviro labeling, 3/4
- Guidelines help organizations prepare for ADA bill, 4/22
- Rule gagging clinics from mentioning abortion poses threat to 1st amendment, 6/10
- PR threatened by tax in Minnesota, 6/17

HEALTHCARE

- Behavioral risk factor surveillance lists health hazards by state, 2/11
- American Red Cross must keep donor enthusiasm up but blood supply level, 2/18
- Kathy Lewton's book on healthcare pr now available, 2/18
- Health interest is so strong, issues like gun control can use it for positioning, 3/11
- Despite awareness campaign re cholesterol, behaviors haven't changed, 4/15
- ASHMPR conference to address ~~unusually broad range of subjects~~, 5/20
- Rule gagging clinics from mentioning abortion poses threat to 1st amendment, 6/10

HOSPITALS

- Hospital self imposes Rotary's test of responsible conduct, 6/10

INTERNATIONAL PR

- Report scopes European broadcast industry, 1/21

ISSUE MANAGEMENT

- American Red Cross must keep donor enthusiasm up but blood supply level, 2/18
- Conflict avoidance, resolution & mgmt are emerging negotiation techniques, 2/25
- Colleges' wartime strategy for Persian Gulf students is to lay low, 3/11
- Health interest is so strong, issues like gun control can use it for positioning, 3/11
- Ongoing scandals makes keeping the faith & building trust the top goal, 5/6

LANGUAGE

- Naming trends are going away from the "gold" and toward the "green," 1/14
- Proper use of "actionable" debated, 4/8

MANAGEMENT

- Internal communications is a process, not a program, done well via internal networks, 3/25
- 2 organizations illustrate honest downsizing, 4/15
- Eliminating mid-level managers is a big mistake, 4/29
- Can TQM's relationship-based philosophy be salvaged? 6/24
- ~~Rule for effective coalitions,~~ 6/24

MARKETING

- When targeting black constituency, realize diversity, 2/11
- PR's involvement in naming of products and services, 5/6
- Ice cream manufacturer uses targeted pr to sell to tonsillectomy patients, 5/27
- New FTC rule says product placement in movies requires notice, 6/10
- Marketers lack relationship-building skills, innovation, 6/10

MEDIA: ELECTRONIC

- FCC may allow more local regulation of cable tv rates, 1/14
- 900 numbers try self regulation, 1/28
- Print, tv journalists spar over use of VNRs, 5/27
- Scholars say public needs are sacrificed to broadcast ad dollars, 6/3
- New FTC rule says product placement in movies requires notice, 6/10

MEDIA: GENERAL

- Report scopes European broadcast industry, 1/21
- Media expert says press has a right of center bias, 1/28
- Gannett report on AIDS coverage reveals media weaknesses, 4/29
- Print, tv journalists spar over use of VNRs, 5/27
- Scholars say public needs are sacrificed to broadcast ad dollars, 6/3
- Civil disobedience still around, but now gets no attention, 6/17
- Minow's speech looks at the media today, 6/17

MEDIA: PRINT

- Farm Journal has been ~~personalizing its contents since~~ 1952, 2/25
- Media woes reflected in decline in new magazine titles, 4/1
- Reebok's AR features photo of a nude male, 4/8
- Pub's diminishing, appearing less frequently, 4/22
- Print, tv journalists spar over use of VNRs, 5/27

NONPROFITS

- To compete, NPOs try extraordinary appeals, 1/21
- PR people move into nonprofit realm to fill top spots, 3/4
- Lean times for business means fewer ads, more PSAs, 4/8

ORGANIZATION DEVELOPMENT

Internal communications is a process, not a program, done well via internal networks, 3/25

How can employee loyalty be secured when job security is passe? 4/15

2 organizations illustrate honest downsizing, 4/15

In-house publications in trouble because contents are not pertinent, 4/15

Internal culture dictates an organization's response to external pressures, 4/22

OD breakthrough: managers, not systems experts, should manage info tech, 5/13

Organizations wanting to catch the green wave had better act fast, 5/20

Practitioner notes dawn of the "humane" corp'n, 5/27

PERCEPTION MANAGEMENT

FBI report of murder rates by city proves perception isn't always reality, 1/14

Ongoing scandals makes keeping the faith & building trust the top goal, 5/6

Anger at tuna catchers an industry problem, as companies are finding out, 5/13

Race track war uses perceptions management, pro-active posturing, 5/20

PERSUASION

Conflict avoidance, resolution & management are emerging negotiation techniques, 2/25

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Demographers predict exurbs will be new bastions of political clout, 2/25

Backlash against enviro movement raises issue of property rights, 3/25

Political consultants invading pr, 4/1

Rule gagging clinics from mentioning abortion poses threat to 1st amendment, 6/10

PUBLIC OPINION

Old research methods prove less & less able to gather pertinent info for pr, 3/18

Exxon case: does money & muscle win over public opinion? 5/20

Book offers potentially useful psychological & sociological data, 6/24

Research confidentiality threatened, may make data-gathering harder, 6/24

PUBLIC RELATIONS: GENERAL

Do practitioners want to be policy influencers, or prefer service role? 1/7

New research tool rates organizations according to reputation, 1/28

Kathy Lewton's book on healthcare pr now available, 2/18

Trend towards behavioral pr allows systemization for the pr process, 2/18

6 types of campaigns, based on resistance to desired behavior, 2/18

War & recession canceling events, conferences, 2/18

Conflict avoidance, resolution & management are emerging negotiation techniques, 2/25

Some organizations buck trend by pulling big attendance at conferences, 3/4

Salary gap not gender specific, nor limited to pr, 3/18

Association tries to educate public on spectrum of potential catastrophes, 3/18

Old research methods prove less & less able to gather pertinent info for pr, 3/18

Studies suggest increased need for pr in years to come, 3/18

Coors passes along award-winning program on volunteering thru seminars, 3/25

Northwestern U changes pr curriculum to include advertising, marketing, 3/25

Enviro issues present practitioners with major mgmt opportunity, 4/1

Evidence shows practitioners happy with careers, but stressed out, 4/15

Round up of Silver-Anvil award winners, 4/22

Mars Candy, others become upset when pr gets involved, 4/22

Demographic research says more organizations will need pr departments, 4/29

Embattled utility uses apologetic appeals to win back consumer confidence, 5/6

PR's involvement in naming of products and services, 5/6

As mediation becomes alternative to lawsuits, opportunity abounds for pr, 5/13

Exxon notes Alaska benefited economically from Valdez spill, 5/20

ASHMMPR conference to address unusually broad range of subjects, 5/20

Race track war uses perceptions management, pro-active posturing, 5/20

Ketchum finds in Clorox case that prudence is the rule, 5/27

Ice cream manufacturer uses targeted pr to sell to tonsillectomy patients, 5/27

Last week in May is "National PR Week," 5/27

New "pr tracking system" confuses goals, 6/3

PR newsletter writer damages field with his assessment of the profession, 6/3

Little guys use "the best of pr thinking" to win California utility war, 6/3

Survey reveals CEO involvement in pr, 6/17

IABC's Excellence Study, 6/17

Practitioner's survey of NYC pr pros verifies IABC's Excellence Study, 6/17
 Fax as a potent pr tool, 6/24
 Can TQM's relationship-based philosophy be salvaged? 6/24

PUBLIC RELATIONS: PROFESSION

US Dept of Labor still misses on description of pr profession, 2/18
 PR people move into nonprofit realm to fill top spots, 3/4
 PRSA research shows gender-based discrimination within the field, 3/4
 Political consultants invading pr, 4/1
 Veteran practitioner claims pr people are primarily communicators, 4/1
 Survey results yield names of practitioner role models, 4/8
 Evidence shows practitioners are happy with careers, but stressed out, 4/15
 Practitioners undervalue themselves, their function, 6/17
 PR threatened by tax in Minnesota, 6/17

RESEARCH

Coalition forms to condemn research perversion, 1/14
 New research tool rates organizations according to reputation, 1/28
 Focus groups becoming most used research tool; can they stand alone? 2/4
 Old research methods prove less & less able to gather pertinent info for pr, 3/18
 Survey reveals CEO involvement in pr, 6/17
 IABC's Excellence Study, 6/17
 Practitioner's survey of NYC pr pros verifies IABC's Excellence Study, 6/17
 Book offers psychological & sociological data, 6/24

Research confidentiality threatened, may make data-gathering harder, 6/24

SOCIAL ISSUES

FBI report of murder rates by city proves perception isn't always reality, 1/14
 To compete, NPOs try extraordinary appeals, 1/21
 New communication technology gives rise to privacy issues, 1/28
 Hate groups try to appear mainstream, 2/11
 Behavioral risk factor surveillance lists health hazards by state, 2/11
 When targeting black constituency, realize diversity, 2/11
 PR people move into nonprofit realm to fill top spots, 3/4
 Does Volvo reach too far with "Sonogram" campaign? 3/4
 Colleges' wartime strategy for Persian Gulf students is to lay low, 3/11
 Report finds youth besieged by social & health problems, 3/11
 Association tries to educate public on spectrum of potential catastrophes, 3/18
 Backlash against enviro movement raises issue of property rights, 3/25
 Enviro issues present practitioners with major mgmt opportunity, 4/1
 Gannett report on AIDS coverage reveals media weaknesses, 4/29
 Animal rights activism fluid in definition & alliances, 4/29
 Ongoing scandals makes keeping the faith & building trust the top goal, 5/6
 Scholars say public needs are sacrificed to broadcast ad dollars, 6/3
 Rule gagging clinics from mentioning abortion poses threat to 1st amendment, 6/10

Civil disobedience still around, but now gets no attention, 6/17
 Minow's speech looks at the media today, 6/17

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

United Way scan predicts rebirth of social activism, 1/21
 Enviro activists now realize people come first, 2/4
 Coors passes along award-winning program on volunteering thru seminars, 3/25
 Guidelines help organizations prepare for ADA bill, 4/22
 Internal culture dictates an organization's response to external pressures, 4/22
 Embattled utility uses apologetic appeals to win back consumer confidence, 5/6
 Anger at tuna catchers an industry problem, as companies are finding out, 5/13
 Organizations wanting to catch the green wave had better act fast, 5/20
 Practitioner notes dawn of the "humane" corp'n, 5/27
 Chemical industry attempts to self-regulate, respond to public thru "Responsible Care," 6/10
 Hospital self imposes Rotary's test of responsible conduct, 6/10

SURVEY OF THE PROFESSION: PRR'S ANNUAL

Results yield names of practitioner role models, 4/8

TECHNOLOGY

New comm tech gives rise to privacy issues, 1/28
 900 numbers try self regulation, 1/28
 Report says utilities should reverse message strategy re conservation, 4/8
 OD breakthrough: managers, not systems experts, should manage info tech, 5/13

Fax as a potent pr tool, 6/24
Bank uses fax to communicate daily to employees during Chapter 11, 6/24

TRENDS

Naming trends are going away from the "gold" and toward the "green," 1/14
United Way scan predicts rebirth of social activism, 1/21
Studies suggest increased need for pr in years to come, 3/18
How can employee loyalty be secured when job security is passe? 4/15
Eliminating mid-level mgrs is a big mistake, 4/29

Old-line industries must now market themselves, use pr, 4/29
As mediation becomes alternative to lawsuits, opportunity abounds for pr, 5/13
Practitioner notes dawn of the "humane" corp'n, 5/27

UTILITIES

Report says utilities should reverse message strategy re conservation, 4/8
Embattled utility uses apologetic appeals to win back consumer confidence, 5/6
Little guys use "the best of pr thinking" to win California utility war, 6/3

WHO'S WHO IN PUBLIC RELATIONS

Kenneth Youel, past PRSA pres, dies, 1/14
George Eisenhuth dies, 1/14
Nat'l Ass'n of Prof'l Enviro Communicators elects officers, 1/28
Howard Chase receives Ball State U award, 4/1
Institute of PR Education elects trustees, 4/22
Defense Information School inducts 3 into Hall of Fame, 6/10

pr reporter's Reader Service Department

...is available to answer your questions about articles, send reprints & binders, and provide information & references. Just call Laurie at 603/778-0514 to place your order. Note: please send pre-payment on orders of $10 or more.

Reprints

Need an extra copy for your boss or client? Reprints of all articles in this index are available for a small charge from pr reporter.

Binders

...are available for only $8.50. That's just cost plus postage. Keep a year's issues including our 3 supplements together as a handy reference. To order, call pr reporter.

Reprint Rates

1 issue	$5.00
2-10 issues	$4.00 each
11-25 issues	$3.00 each